

Urban Marine

January 3, 1915 - January 2, 2012

Obituary of Urban Marine

Urban W. Marine, 96, of Leesburg, Florida, died Monday, January 2, 2012. He was born January 3, 1915 in Fayette County, Ohio and came to Englewood in 1977 from Lansing, MI. He was an Army veteran of WWII. Following graduation from Miami-Jacobs College, Dayton, Ohio, he moved to Lansing, MI where he was employed as an accountant by the State of Michigan, retiring after 28 years.

He was a member of Englewood United Methodist Church, American Theater Organ Society, Association of Retired Military Musicians and a life member of the Elks in Washington, C.H., Ohio. His avocation was music and he played contra bass in various groups over the past few years---the North Port Orchestra, Les Elgin's Swing Kings Band in Port Charlotte and lastly with the No Name Band out of Alameda Isles.

He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Lois; two daughters, Connie Weaver of Leesburg, FL, Charlotte Ames of DeWitt, MI; son, Stewart of Holmes Beach, FL; four grandchildren and six great grandchildren.