“ Oh, Oh Diana I will miss you so. You are my best friend as well as a cousin by marriage. We have had so many good times together. You fought the good fight and are now victorious. You will soon be with your beloved Jim and your parents. My thoughts and prayers go out to Edwin, Dustin, Philip, Stanley and friends. Cherish your precious memories and lean upon the Lord for strength. It's goodbye till we meet again.

“ Diana used to babysit for us when we were small. Her family lived across the street from us. Knowing her as an adult was a blessing. She always had a smile and a heart of gold. I loved her laugh.

“ My Dear Sweet Girl. you are now in God's Loving Arms and surrounded by Mother, Father and all those who went before you . . . "Joy In the Morning", it is yours now and we are so very happy for you . . . this is for you: Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away for lo, the winter has passed, the rain is over and gone, The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, And the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grapes give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. Song of Songs 2:10-13 How could the soul not take flight When from the glorious presence A soft call flows sweet as honey, comes right up to her And whispers, 'Rise up now, come away.' Rumi
