“ Lynn, Susan, Venora and families. Your parents meant so much to me. I have so many great memories of them both. Venora had the sweetest spirit. Her gentleness and beautiful smile remains with me always. God grant you all peace and comfort at her loss. I pray the memories of all those wonderful times will keep your hearts in the days to come. Love to you all, Molly

“ Oh what a beautiful lady Venorah was and always will be in my mind. The joy she gave, the comfort, smiles, tender care and plain old selflessness. I remember all the Saturdays she and Bob allowed us youth to meet at their home and have prayer meetings...sing and read the Bible and socialize. They never bothered us, just sat in the back ground and made sure we didn't get out of line. But, we didn't, because we knew they cared enough to love us the way we were and opened their lives to us. We all respected them and that is a part of my life I cherish and will for ever and ever. I could go on and on....She to me was the meaning of love....She and Bob had a love that never ended, she showed love to all and even strangers. OH, I can just imagine the look on Bob's face and hers when they saw each other again as she stepped through those gates of Gold....and when I think of that...I smile.
