“ Our deep and sincere condolences to the family of Mr. Vernon Williams. Death is such a horrible "enemy" that we can never get used to, so we hope that all of Mr. Vernon's family can gain comfort and encouragement from friends and family. Also, please allow what the Bible contains to bring you additional comfort and hope: "From the power of the Grave I will redeem them; From death I will recover them..." (Hosea 13:14); "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15); God "will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." -Revelation 21:4

“ I knew Mr Williams to be a loving father, caring volunteer, and all-around great guy. He would always tell me, "I'm glad you got to see me", and I always agreed. He was a dear man and will be missed.
