“ Vicki Lee Pratt is and always will be one of my dear Sister/Friend family! We became close in High school and remained that way over the years, while attending FBC Leesburg she was just who she'd ALWAYS was. My Sister friend and I had just got the blessed opportunity to not only have " Popeyes chicken " a week before she transitioned from LABOR to REWARD, but I got to minister and LOVE on my friend not knowing it was the last time on this side. 😭
😭 I'm so grateful to God for HIS perfect timing in our lives being lived not by default but rather by DESIGN! Thank You heavenly Father our REDEEMER for how You order eternity just for us. I know how much you loved your parents especially your Dad, Mr. Ralph, and I'm sure the Lord will let you see my " HunkaChunka Chocolate " Cecil, please hug him for me.
I love you 💔🙏 I'm praying for Miss. Ann, Diane, ALL the KIDS, and their families! JESUS is our Lord and Holy Spirit is our comforter! 🙏🙏

I'm so sorry for your loss. You lost an angel!

I met Vicki years ago when she and my sister Betty Jo Arnold were in Tupperware together. I sang for several of their Christmas parties. She and my sister had become best friends. Through the years we became like sisters and her mom Alice was like a mom to us. We had a lot of fun times together. Christmas parties at Vicki's house, Christmas plays, and just hanging out together. She was a wonderful daughter to her mother, wife, mother, and grandmother. Loved her family more than anything except her love for the Lord. She was beautiful inside and out. no matter how tough things were she was always smiling.

We were wondering why we hadn't heard from her. She always called and sent cards, Now we know. She's with her mom and Jesus. We will miss you and always remember all our time spent together.

Love you, Vicki. Always in our hearts.
