“ Words cannot express the loss I feel. Hardly a week has gone by since her birth that I have not thought or spoke about (or to) her. She was the healthiest person in spirit that I have ever known. Her strength was amazing and her arms full of love. She was extremely forgiving and wonderfully supportive. My thoughts are with her children Jennifer, Jeff, Jamie and Jessica and their spouses and the grandchildren that I could not begin to name individually well so I will not attempt. My heart goes out to her father and siblings Uncle Bill/Sharie/Billy who have had so much trauma losing Vickie's step mother Linda just recently who I am sure is enjoying a reunion with her today. Wishing her Mother, Sandy (and Bo) love and support. A special thank you to Teddi, Sister Melanie and Chuck for all the loving support they offered her over the years. I know that Vic appreciated it. A huge hug to David Hillyard for being there for Vic. AND Jody, you will go to heaven for your constant love and support of Vickie, not only the last month but for the years in the past. Life will not be the same without her, and I will go to my grave missing her.

“ Our deepest condolences to Vickie's family. Vickie was my sister-in-law, having been married to my brother Perry J. Bajorek who preceeded her in death. I know he was waiting for her with open arms and they are finally "together again". She is also sister-in-law to my brother Chuck (Marsha) Bajorek in CA, and to my sister Sr. Melanie Marie Bajorek who is stationed in Rome and works for the English Secretary of State at the Vatican. We love her and will miss her but are happy that she is now at peace and back with our Perry. We met many of Vickie's relatives at Perry's funeral in Berea, Ohio. Another relative who kept in touch with Vickie is Perry's godfather, Bob Taylor from Maryland. May she rest in peace.
