“ I grew up with Vic and Johnny on Liberty Street in Southington. They were my cousins and lived next door. We played together as young children and went to the same schools. While we had a tendency to raise the devil, Vic was the one who was always level headed and kept us out of trouble. I will always have fond memories of those carefree days. I was also close to their mom and dad, Nancy and Peter. Peter was a great fisherman and on occasion took us boys to his favorite fishing spots. My sister Loretta had a close relationship with their mother Nancy when they both lived in Old Lyme, Connecticut. We had an opportunity to visit with them and Nancy always kept us in stitches with her humorous wit and boy was she a great cook! I regret that that I didn't get to see Vic in our later years . Our sincere condolences to his family at this sad time. Phil & Nancy Dighello, Freedom, NH and Spring Hill, FL.
