Vic grew up in Detroit, Michigan in the area of West Grand Boulevard and Tireman Avenue. Vic's first job was at Kline's women's apparel store in downtown Detroit, making 37 ½ cents per hour. Vic's mother was also employed at Kline's. After serving in the Navy during World War II, Vic was called back to service in 1953, spending two years in the Army. He embarked on his sales career in 1954 as a manufacturer's sales rep for Hortex Mfg., selling Billy the Kid Blue Jeans. On July 27, 1970, Vic married N.J. "Joey" Tutor Olson in Walled Lake, Michigan. Vic and Joey founded VCK, Inc. in the mid 70's. During the past five decades, this successful, thriving enterprise has had the good fortune of working with some of the finest companies in the souvenir industry, such as Wheeler Mfg. Co., Inc. of Lemmon, South Dakota. He and Joey enjoyed splitting their time between homes in Leesburg, Florida and Cherokee, North

We are grateful that we were able to spend some time with you all in Cherokee after Daddy went to his "great reward"-his words! Today, I know there are many hugs shared and a huge reunion celebration in the Heavenly realm. Love and God bless you all... Joe and Ann (Privett) Moore

“ Joey, Dawn and Jack; I am so sorry for your loss. Here a couple of things that I will miss with Vic being gone. I am going to miss Vic being the first one at the booth setting there in his yellowish sweater smiling at the rest of us filing in. I will miss his kingship in the court in his room after each day at the show. Most of all -- ALL of us will miss Vic. Our hearts and prayers are will you. Love rob
