“ I am sure one of your biggest regrets is leaving your son Alex Rodriguez. Look at his success. He is an even better father to his two daughters since the heartache that he endured when he was a child when you said you would be back and you never returned. I'm surprised the Internet isn't aware that this is Alex's father. Nowhere on the Internet is this publicized of what he looked like or any whereabouts. Mistakes are made, rest in peace.

“ You would be so proud of Alex. I know this is probably one of your biggest regrets leaving him, but he is an even better father figure to his two daughters because of the heartache he endured as a child when you said you would be right back and never returned. Mistakes are made, rest in peace.

“ Victor, lo que más recuerdo de tí: mis vacaciones en San Juan de la Maguana cuando nos visitabas, decías tus famosos chistes y luego te reías y los celebrabas con esa amplia risa que te caracterizaba. Descansa en paz querido primo. Mayra Marcano

“ This is a huge loss for the entire family. Over the last few days, images and sounds come to mind of conversations I had with him, times I spent with him, anecdotes he shared with me about his life, and other vignettes. A repository of family heirlooms has gone away with his departure. He was easy to take for granted with his quiet ways, humility, and unassuming manners, but anyone who knew him valued him for the wealth of qualities he possessed. Among the many things I'll always remember are his generosity, impeccable manners, aristocratic demeanor, and elegance. He was man of class, and an old-fashioned gentleman. As time goes by, he will be even more appreciated and missed. It's a big loss indeed, Lilli. Thank you for loving him, and being like a daughter to him. I know he loved you so. Victor Manuel
