“ I worked alongside Vilma at Brown Elementary in Eastpoint, Florida. Vilma was an outstanding reading teacher at Brown and held herself to the highest standards as a devoted educator. Vilma and Dominic were also neighbors of mine on St. George Island. Their doors to their island home were always open to local residents. The home was always full of love, lively conversation and tasty Italian food. I will treasure my fond memories of my friend, Vilma. God's Peace 🕊️

“ Deepest sympathies to all the Baragona family. A lot of good times spent at 314 Wood St in Niles with dear friend Tony and brother John. Memories vivid to this day. A big part of my childhood and summer morning fishing excursions on our bikes remain fresh in memory. Again so sorry for your loss.
