Obituary of Vincent Palmisano

Vincent Palmisano, 86, passed away on September 27, 2015. He was the youngest of four children born in New York City to Anthony and Anna. He was raised in Revere, Massachusetts, where he called home for 50 years before retiring to Lady Lake, Florida.

He was a beloved husband, father and grandfather. He is survived by Pamela, his wife of 62 years, of Lady Lake FL; David and his wife Paula of Portsmouth, NH; Anthony and his wife Renee of Mt. Juliet, TN; Stephen and his wife Jill of Millbury, MA; Terese and her husband Joseph Cyr of Salem, NH; Richard and his wife Melissa of Jacksonville, FL. His son Robert S. predeceased him. He also leaves 12 grandchildren whom he adored and was adored by.

Vinny was a caring, kind man who gave of himself and was always willing to lend a hand. He was a friend to all who knew him and an inspiration to his entire family. He was a lifelong frequent blood donor to the American Red Cross, always giving of himself.

Vinny served his country with honor during the Korean War in the USAF as an aircraft maintenance mechanic. He was employed by Eastern Airlines at Logan Airport for 27 years as a lead aircraft maintenance mechanic.

Never one to sit still, he enjoyed tinkering with projects around his home, golfing with his friends and was an avid, lifelong New England sports fan. He was most proud, above all things, of his family and being a good family man.

Vinny will be laid to rest with military honors, alongside his son Robert, at Bushnell National Cemetery in Bushnell, FL.

Vinny will be greatly missed by his family and all who had the pleasure to know him.

“ Very sad to hear of Uncle Vin's passing. Because of time and distance my memories are few but very fond - from my early days as a 5 year old page boy at his wedding to Aunt Pam in England; growing up with my 'Jack Dempsey' boxing gloves gift from him; meeting him again at Nan and Grandad's golden wedding in 1974 on his only return here and visiting them in their lovely Florida home on 3 occasions back in the 80's & 90's. He always seemed a strong, forthright, and principled man with an obvious love for and pride in his family. I'm sure his loss will be felt by you all and you have my heartfelt condolences especially my dearest Aunt Pam to whom I send much love and sympathy. R.I.P.
