June 13, 1928 - December 29, 2012

Obituary of Virginia Dixon

Virginia Johnson Dixon, 84, passed away December 29, 2012 at The Villages Hospice House in The Villages, FL. She was born June 13, 1928, in Union Springs, AL. She moved to Columbus, GA, at a young age and always considered Columbus her home. In her younger years, she enjoyed a career teaching elementary school in Columbus, Marietta, and Woodstock, GA. She was an active member of St. Luke Methodist Church in Columbus and later the Marietta Seventh Day Adventist Church. In her later years, she moved to Virginia to be near her son and more recently to Florida to be near her daughter. She always enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren, playing classical music on her piano, studying the scriptures and enjoying nature. Mrs. Dixon was predeceased by her husband, Jack W Dixon, Sr, and her granddaughter, Laura Randall. She is survived by her son, J. Warren Dixon, Jr. of Poquoson, VA; her daughter, Joan Reece of The Villages, FL; grandsons John Randall of San Antonio, TX; Paul Dixon of West Point, VA; Marc Dixon of Poquoson, VA; and 6 grandchildren. A private graveside service will be held at Arlington National Cemetery where Mrs. Dixon will be interred alongside her late husband.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations be made to either:

“ Many Thanks! First, many thanks to the Johnson family for raising their children in a Christian environment, one of whom became our mom, Virginia Johnson Dixon. Because of the Johnson family, we too grew up in a Christian environment, and had many wonderful Christian Aunts and Uncles. Next, many thanks to mom for passing that Christian environment on to me, my family, and ultimately four generations down. Also, thanks mom, for the many wonderful lessons in life you gave to us. Some lessons as simple as loading the dishwasher with the silverware points down so you don't get stuck. Another, if you have the faith of a mustard seed, you can move mountains. However, the greatest gifts I received were the many Bible stories and verses I carry in my mind. Again, Many Thanks mom, will love you always! Enjoy your dinner with daddy at the King of Kings Table! Your son, Warren

“ In remembering my dear grandmother, I must first thank God for sending such a wonderful soul to be a part of my life. To my parents Joan & Ernie Reece and Aunt and Uncle Warren & Paula Dixon, words just aren't enough to thank you for the endless love you showed and sacrifices you made these last few years. My Grandmother was one of the most unique and loving people I've ever known. She was ferociously loyal to God and her family and everything else in life took a very distant second. Gramma thank you so much for all the love and wisdom you gave us. You will be truly missed and forever loved and I know you will always be watching over us from heaven. As we pay our last respects, you will be remembered with the greatest honor this nation has to give, for you will join Grampa in Arlington. Hug Laura's neck for me when you get there Gramma. Until we meet again- love you. (John 3:16)
