

Walter A. Asbach

January 11, 1936 - September 4, 2019

Walter Albert Asbach, Jr. of The Villages Florida, passed away unexpectedly on September 4, 2019. He was the husband of Mary E. Asbach for 60 years.

"Wally" was born in Chicago, IL on January 11, 1936. He was the son of the late Walter and Mildred Asbach and brother to the late Loretta Rutoski and late James Asbach.

After High School he became a carpenter apprentice and attended trade school, becoming a journeyman carpenter. Wally served in the Army reserve from 1957 to 1964. In 1960, Wally and his best friend established a successful Carpentry Contractor business, Asbach & Vanselow, Inc. which grew and prospered building homes in the Chicago area for 35 years. He retired from that business in 1995 and went on to become a Home Inspector here in The Villages, FL. He loved his work, but he loved pickle ball and golf, too. A busy guy.

Wally is survived by four children and their spouses, Dave and Jacquie; Susan and Gary; John and Cindy and Jeff and Melanie. He has nine beloved grandchildren and a puppy "Molly".

There will be a "Celebration of Wally's Life" on October 26, 2019 at Colony Cottage in The Villages, FL. Luncheon will be served at 11:30 AM. Please

RSVP to Mary at masbach@aol.com.

Arrangements entrusted to Beyers Funeral Home and Crematory, Lady Lake, FL.

“ My husband and I were sad to learn of Wally's death. We are new to The Villages and he did our home inspection before the warranty ran out . This was this past winter. He was very nice and welcoming and gave us tips on which service people we could use. We kept his card in case we needed any more help. Sorry for the family's loss.
