“ *Dearest Walt,
So saddened to read of your passing. You were always a welcomed friend in our household. Both our girls grew up listening fondly to your great stories. You made us all laugh. RIP, dear friend. God bless.

“ Walt,

I just read of your passing. My daughter Sara looked it up while we were talking about one of your stories or Waltism's.

As you know, we were very close and worked together for 20 years in New York.

I'm happy to read your life in Florida was full and rewarding.

I love you brother and our world will miss you, as I will.

Peace and eternal rest my friend.

Rob.

Will miss your visits and your voice calling "Hey Sweetheart" as you came up the stairs. We had many spirited conversations on so many diverse subjects! And of course they always ended with one of your stories that only you could tell. I think I know them all by heart, but will miss you telling them. Be at peace in heaven my friend, love you
