Obituary of Walter James McHenry

Walter James "Walt" McHenry, 76, of Leesburg, was born October 16, 1937, passed away peacefully on July 18, 2014 at Jacaranda Manor in St. Petersburg, FL. Walt established an air conditioning business in New Jersey for 20 years, but at the age 50 he pursued his love of driving and drove a tractor trailer for 10 years. He was a member of Independent Volunteer Fire Co. for 40 years, member of the Navy Reserves and of Parkview Elementary School board in New Jersey. Walt and Dorothy retired to Leesburg in 2003 to enjoy retirement at Pennbrook Fairway in Leesburg.

Walt is survived by his loving wife Dorothy, sons, Walter James and Christopher William, and his three wonderful grandchildren, Destinee, Dimitri and Ethan.

No memorial services are planned by Walt's request. Donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association in Walt's name.

“ Dot, Sorry to hear of Walt's passing. He was such a "Role" model to me during my days at Independent Fire Company. I can still picture myself running down the street to the fire house only to find that Walt was there before me. Your family can rest for sure that he is up there in heaven watching everyone run to the fire house. Bill
