

Wanda Carolyn Lukasik

May 13, 1930 - May 29, 2017

Wanda Carolyn Lukasik, 87, of Sumter Place, The Villages, FL passed away on Monday, May 29, 2017. Wanda was born in Pawtucket, RI to the late Joseph and Mary Milosh. She attended Attleboro high school, Attleboro, MA, also attended seminars on purchasing basics and image skills for Today's Business Woman. She was married in 1953 to her loving husband Frank and they relocated to The Villages, from Punta Gorda, FL. She enjoyed tennis and golf. She had 25 years of experience purchasing supplies & equipment and services, sales, administrative and secretarial work. She worked for Lord & Taylor as a model, consultant, and a cosmetic consultant to Jellefs, Garfinkels, Woodward and Lothrop, and Lady Hamilton, all in the Washington area. She is survived by her husband, Frank Anthony Lukasik, daughter, Sheryl Bass (Robert), son, Frank Joseph Lukasik (Marin), granddaughters, Jessica Bosworth, Kimberly Chonko, grandsons, Dillon Lukasik, and Timothy Lukasik. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held on Saturday, June 10, 2017 at 8:30 am at St. Timothy Catholic Church, Lady Lake, FL.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ Dear Frank and family,

*We remember all the fun we had with you and Wanda playing golf,
dancing and the time we went to the beach!*

We cannot make it to the June 10th memorial service. However, you will be in our prayers then.

Your friends, Chuck and Evelyn

Chuck and Evelyn Hustig - June 04, 2017 at 05:38 PM