Obituary of Wayne Puls

Wayne passed away peacefully at home December 22. He is survived by his wife, Sally Robbins Puls, his daughter, Susan Puls, and her husband, Craig Taylor. He had suffered with Alzheimer's disease for many years. Born in Pueblo, CO on December 12, 1923 to Fred and Nora Puls, he grew up in San Leandro, California. He served in WWII as an Ensign in the U.S. Navy and served in the Pacific aboard the USS Dickerson as a radioman. While in the Navy, he later attended the University of Idaho, the University of Missouri and graduated from the University of Michigan. While in Columbia, MO Wayne met his future wife, Florence Wakeman, and they were married in Orlando, FL in 1947. He became a lifelong Floridian at that time and had a career initially with GMAC and subsequently in banking until he retired. He served as president of several banks in central and south Florida. After retirement he launched a new career as developer and manager of various outpatient surgical and medical facilities. He was an avid tennis player and walked for exercise several miles daily. He and Sally were married in 1970 and moved to The Villages in 2006 after many years in South Florida. Wayne Puls was a kind, charitable, intelligent and respected man through his life, a good father and husband. He is loved and will be missed. He leaves a wonderful legacy. We express gratitude to all those who loved and cared for him particularly during these last difficult years.

He is survived by his wife Sally Puls, The Villages, FL and daughter; Susan Puls of Eden, Utah.

Friends may sign a memorial register book at Lady Lake Chapel of Beyers Funeral Home on Thursday, December 24, 2015. A small family service will be on Saturday, December 26, 2015 at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Gotha, FL. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to LDS Philanthropies in memoriam. <https://www.ldsphilanthropies.org/in-memoriam.html>

“ Dear Sally Ann, I was saddened to have the notice of Wayne's passing. I have so many wonderful memories of our time shared with our guys. I particularly recall many golf games and tennis matches with the 'Indian'. Will be calling you soon to speak directly of my hope that you will be well and find solace in the good memories of your time with Wayne. I send my love and prayers

“ Wayne was the "best of the best". He was a loyal and trusted friend and confidant, as well as a highly regarded and excellent advisor and counselor. He was always ready to help those in need with his skill and expertise. We will always cherish and hold dear our happy and meaningful memories of the many years we shared together. We will miss our dear friend, Wayne.

“ To The Family of Wayne Puls, We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Wayne Puls. We only met Wayne and his wife, Sally, once in his daughter Susan's home in Eden, Utah. Jeff was honored to join Susan's husband Craig in giving Wayne a priesthood blessing the evening before he died. We have known Susan for many years as a faithful and loving daughter and her husband Craig as her faithful companion. Our sympathies are with Craig and Susan and the Puls family as they mourn the loss of their patriarch. Jeff and Jeanie Tennant The Villages, Florida
