“ Fred was a read "Gentleman". Darrell and Fred had many conversations regarding, Opera, Bridge and History. I remember him for his Kindness and consideration to me when Darrell was so ill and up at "The Club" for rehab. He Drove up to the "The Club" with other's to play bridge with Darrell to make his time go by faster. We will miss him very much.

“ Uncle Fred was always the sweetest, most gentle man. He had a dry sense of humor, which was very funny. He was patient and always adored his daughters. How could you not love a man like that. I have many fond memories of time spent with the family as I was growing up. They will be cherished.
