

Wilfred John Smith

June 14, 2012

Obituary of Wilfred John Smith

Wilfred John "Bill" Smith, 87, of Leesburg, passed away Thursday, June 14th at the Villages Hospice House. Born in Rosendale, NY he was a retired lithographer and a US Army veteran of WWII. Bill was drafted and played baseball in the minors and was unable to play major league baseball, his true love, after returning from the war. Survivors include his daughter, Linda Reisner, grandchildren, Chad Reisner, Randy Eckel, Nancy Reisner and Adam Reisner. Six great-grandchildren also survive. Bill was preceded in death by his wife, Joan M. Smith, September 3, 2003. Friends may call Monday, June 25th from 6 to 8 pm at Beyers Funeral Home, Leesburg. A Mass of Christian Burial will be Tuesday, June 26th at St. Patrick Catholic Church, Mt. Dora, at 9:00 am with Fr. Robert D'Aversa officiating. Burial will follow at Florida National Cemetery, Bushnell. Memorials may be directed to Cornerstone Hospice, 2445 Lane Park Rd. Tavares, FL 32778.

Tribute Wall

“ Sincere sympathy is sent to the family of "Bill". He was a bowling "buddy" for many years.. He was very competitive. We did not know of his love for baseball as we read in The Daily Commercial. We regret that we will not be able to attend the services due to prior comintments.

---

Perk and Chris Pergolini - October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Wilfred John Smith

---

October 01, 2014 at 12:00 AM