“ To my Friend Bills family: He was a good and happy man. I was and am honored to have know a man with as much peace in his heart as he had. Thank You for your service To God and country. Thanks for the Good times so far away from home back in our AF days at the 819th Red Horse/RAF Wethersfield, UK, you made my 3 years(86-89) there a little bit better with your good and positive spirit, thanks for the great memories for our RV trip from Jasper Tx. to the French Quarters in N.O. and then last year in THAT cabin on THAT mountain in The Great Smokey Mountains for a couple of days for me. I was truly blessed to see all that beauty in this world for that short moment in time that I think Bill saw all his life. Yes, I was bless to know and Learn from him the beauty of nature. So Bill my friend!! TRAVEL ON,ON TO THAT NEXT BEAUTIFUL PLACE that I KNOW your walking at now and checking it out and taking it all in !! R.I.P. Bill Fairport Joe !
