Obituary of William Beers

William L. "Bill" Beers was born on July 24, 1955 in Coalport, Pennsylvania. Bill spent his first years of life in Pennsylvania. He attended and graduated from Glendale High School and Altoona Vocational Tech School. After school Bill began his career in the electrical business which developed into, late in life, his ownership of Energy Erectors in Leesburg, Florida. Over the years, Bill built Energy Erectors into a highly successful company and provided employment for many family and friends, however Bill's passion in life was his family and friends and the great outdoors. He is survived by his parents, Raymond and Trudy Beers, his wife, Patricia Armstrong Beers (Petunia), his daughter Billie Joe, son in law, Josh Davis, his son Cody L. Beers and his son Kyle Beers, his stepchildren, Bradley Schaffner and Lynnette Stewart, his sisters, Mary Lu, Evedin and Deb and brother Cloyd. Bill is also survived by eight grandchildren.

He spent his leisure time enjoying the wonders of nature throughout the world with his family and friends. Bill was committed throughout his life to helping others and many other community organizations, schools and churches. Bill felt he had been blessed in his life and was committed to sharing his blessings. Bill was a great outdoorsman and lived to share and open the eyes of this experience with all others. Bill was in his element in his mountains of the west. His heart was as big as his mountains and he proved this time and again through his compassion, generosity and sharing of himself and all his worldly goods with his family and friends and many times with complete strangers. You will be greatly missed and never forgotten Wilbur.

Bill truly lived God's commandment to love others as God loved him. Services will be held Wednesday, October 23, 2013, at 1:00 pm at the First Baptist Church, Leesburg with Reverend Cliff Lea officiating. In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to First Academy or Wild Turkey Federation.

“ Billie Jo, my deepest most heartfelt sympathies, as well as my prayers are with you and all of your family during this most difficult of times. I had the pleasure of meeting your dad just a few times but he was most gracious, warm and friendly. I know how much he meant to you as your father, and I know how much you will miss him. Remember one word, "Resurrection". When you feel your heart being crushed by pain, think of that word. That will give you strength and Grace to move forward. Your father will be with you in spirit and in your heart ALWAYS. I know he was, and is, so proud of you. I love you very much my sweet friend. May God bless you always.

“ The news of Bills passing was a total shock to me. I only knew Bill for a short time but became very fond of him while i was working on Cody's house. He was a man true to his word and never pulled punches or beat around the bush. My wife and I will keep both Bill and family in our prayers. God Bless all of you

“ I met Bill while taking care of his, fine and well mannered, sons Cody and Kyle. Bill came across as an honest and hard working man with values both centered and grounded. Bill attended many of his sons appointments and was always interested in their progress. He often spoke about his wildlife adventures that he shared with his sons. I am sure he was a great father and husband and will be greatly missed. My condolences.

“ Bill was my friend. I will miss him greatly. We talked regularly on the phone and texted each other when we had a succesful hunt or fishing experience. Bill was a generous man with a good heart. We were supposed to go on a bear hunt next week together. I almost cancelled the hunt but I think sitting in a tree stand will honor a true friend. God Bless Patty, Kyle and Cody and God please take good care of my old buddy Bill. Bob McCorkle
