

William "Bill" Raymond Winter

July 7, 1944 - March 7, 2025

William "Bill" Raymond Winter, 80, passed away peacefully on Friday March 7th at Cornerstone Hospice House in the Villages, Florida. He was born to Orvetta and William Winter in Freeport, Illinois on July 7th 1944. Bill attended Purdue University in Indiana. As a reservist, he was ordered to active duty by the U.S. Navy where he served as a meteorologist aboard the USS Little Rock (CLG-4) in the Mediterranean. He later worked as an Electrical Engineer testing and repairing military radios. He resided in Bushnell, Florida. He loved his family dearly and was proud of his children. He was a devoted husband to his wife Sheila and a loving father to his children Shelly Winter Dulin, Brian, Kevin (Alischa), and Tyson (Jade). He was a cherished grandfather to Adam (Allie), Alex (Katelynn), Layni, Sadie, Logan, Thorrion, Kaleb, Cody, Kyra, Violet, and Stella and a great grandfather to Bryson, Braelynn, and Britton. He is survived by siblings Carol Spencer, Rick (Nancy), Bobby (Pat), in-laws Sonny (Mickey), Vicki, Debbie (Marvin), Becky (Gavin) along with many nieces and nephews. He was an avid hunter, golfer, and angler. Always chasing the next big one or hole in one, which he accomplished several times. He played men's league fastpitch softball, bowling, and basketball. Nothing he couldn't do. There will be a viewing from 11am to 12pm and service from 12pm to 1pm at Purcell's Funeral Home in Bushnell, Florida on Tuesday March 25th. The procession will leave Purcell's at 1pm as the funeral will take place at 1:30pm at the Florida National Cemetery.
