“ I am so sorry for your loss! Please know that I am thinking and praying for you and your family.
Bill will always be "Tommy" to me. I meet him in 3rd grade and lived just around the corner and down the street. I will always have great memories of Tommy! In our youth, we had many fun times and adventures, and as you can imagine some of which were "questionable". LOL
He was a great man and a great friend! He will forever be loved and missed!
Again, I am praying for you and your family!
(I am very sorry that I could not make the memorial service as I am currently out of town.)

“ Very sorry to hear about the loss of Bill. We lived a couple of blocks away growing up, and what a time it was.
It is very difficult losing family or friends, but I am reminded that those who are sleeping in Jesus we will see again when the Lord Jesus returns for us (1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 KJV).
Wishing God's blessings for Kathy and his children and grandchildren.

“ To the Jarvis Family,

I have the pleasure, and honor of meeting Bill and though it was only for a brief time. I believe that people come into your life for reasons unknown to us but only to those at the gates above. You can tell he loves life and spoke of family and service to country. The boy that would walk Arlington Hall to finish his Army tour in Tampa after 20 yrs. One thing that I will not soon forget is his smile and spirit. I have no words for your loss and can only say that he had made a profound impression on me which I will keep for the rest of my day.

O God, by whose mercy the faithful departed find rest, look kindly on your departed veterans who gave their lives in the service of their country. Grant that through the passion, death, and resurrection of your Son they may share in the joy of your heavenly kingdom and rejoice in you with your saints forever. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your beloved William. This is never easy to face, in fact death can be viewed as an enemy. That's how our Creator Jehovah views it as according to 1 Cor. 15:26; which says, "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." May you find comfort in knowing this and that he has a longing to conquer that enemy, to undo death by means of the resurrection. Please visit jw.org for more comforting information.
