“ We are sad to hear of Uncle Bills Passing but happy to know he is no longer suffering. We enjoyed that we got to spend a day with you while we were in Florida a few months back. We were in awe of how much Uncle Bill was loved by all of his neighbors and friends.

“ We have lost Uncle Bill, our leader but we have all the memories you left with us. Connie and I will be thinking of you, your family and friends gather to celebrate your life in Florida. We wish we could be there. You may have to tell one more joke to go through the gates of heaven. Love you. you had a great ride

“ Uncle Bill was so loving to all of us. I remember when my mom passed away he was there with all of us. He could always crack a joke and make you laugh. Always had a smile on his face. The best Uncle you could ever ask for. I know he is up in heaven with Martin, Mary , Aunt Margie and all of his brothers having a good time reuniting with them. God Bless you Uncle Bill. Love and miss you. Till we meet again. Love, Gary and Mary
