

William Leslie McGillvray

December 9, 1934 - September 2, 2015

Obituary of William McGillvray

William L. McGillivray, Sr., 80, of Sumterville, Florida, passed away Wednesday, September 2, 2015 at home with hospice care from blood cancer. He was born December 9, 1934 in Waterloo, New York. He belonged to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Sumterville where he was a High Priest. He was a machinist and a building contractor and a foster dad for 40 years; a boy scout leader for several years and an advisor for 4-H kids and FFA and he helped save rescued dogs. He was a Marine, Semper Fi and attended Waterloo High School. He will be very missed but is leaving fond memories for all who know him. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leita and Lawrence McGillivray of NY, brother, Lawrence McGillivray, Jr. and sister, Rebecca. Surviving are his wife, Smokey McGillivray of Sumterville, FL; sisters: Mable Sorento, Irene Evens of Waterloo, Leita Eveland of Penn Yenn, NY; children: Annette Sehomly of Convoy, OH, Dawn McGillivray of Fort Wayne, IN, Frederick McGillivray of OH, Samuel McGillivray of Sumterville, FL, William McGillivray, Jr. of SD, Medal McGillivray of IN; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren and his friends Cookie and Bitzie. The McGillivray family wishes to thank Cornerstone Hospice Care in Sumterville for all their kindness and loving care of our loved one.

Tribute Wall

EG

“ Annette and Dawn, So sorry to hear of your Dad's passing but know you are glad he is no longer in any pain and that he is at peace. Thoughts and prayers! ”

Emily Schoenle Grable - October 09, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DE

“ RIP uncle Bill! ”

diane eveland - October 09, 2016 at 12:00 AM

DE

“ RIP uncle Bill!###GESTURE### ”

diane eveland - October 09, 2016 at 12:00 AM