“ I am so grateful to have been a part of the Moloney family all these years and I hold dear to my heart the memories at Flint St. - the pear tree, the pumpkins grown, the fishing tackle and rods in the backporch breezeway, and the always amazing Christmas trees! All of these memories will remind of Mr. Moloney and how you all let me enjoy your company. Li and Jon's wedding weekend is now all the more precious is my heart. All my love to you, Jo, and your beautiful family. Diane

“ Mom, We kept in touch with Kelley while we were away. We were praying and lighting candles for Dad in each and every church/cathedral and chapel we entered asking God to watch over Dad during his surgery. And when we learned that God had taken Dad home with Him, we continued to light candles and pray for you and for Dad. We will miss him and know that we will continue to pray for both of you. Love, Monnie & Kevin

“ Dear Mrs. Moloney, and family, we are so saddened by the sudden loss of your husband. It was always a pleasure to talk to him whenever the family was together. He always had something interesting to share. He was a kind man and devoted to his family. You could always tell how proud he was of his family especially his grandchildren and great grandchildren. I'm so glad I knew him for such a long time. His name is in the prayer book at St. Benedict's and our prayers and thoughts are with all of you at this time. You have wonderful children and family that will help you through. God Bless Bill and all of you.

“ "I think the gentle soul of him goes softly in some garden place, With that old smile time may not dim upon his face. Now that his day of toil is through, I love to think he sits at ease, With some old volume that he knew upon his knees. Watching, perhaps, with quiet eyes the white clouds' drifting endlessly Or twilight opening flower-wise on land and sea. Those whom he loved, aforetime, still, I doubt not, bear him company; Yea, even laughter yet may thrill where he may be. A thought, a fancy--who may tell? Yet, I, who ever pray it so, Feel through my tears that all is well; And this I know,--That God is gentle to His guest, and, therefore may I gladly say, Surely, the things he loved the best are his to-day.--T Garrison *****Give F'rere a hug for us..XO

“ Dear Aunt Jo and Family, It is still hard to write this and believe he is gone. I can see his smile when I close my eyes and hear his laughter. He always liked a good pun! He was a great and gentle man. It was great to have shared our families together. Aunt Jo, Uncle Bill, Dad and Mom, when you were together laughter rained - what good times!! I am so blessed to have known him. He is loved, will be missed but will live on in our hearts. xoxo
