Obituary of William Polburn

William J. Polburn passed away around 9 PM on the evening of October 8, 2013 at Osprey Point Rehab Home in Bushnell, FL.

He leaves his wife, Jacquelin (Cottrell) Polburn; son, David Alan Polburn; granddaughter, Christina Davene Polburn; great-granddaughter, Chloe Polburn; step-grandson, Timothy Bruccolo; twin nieces, Charlene Polburn and Darlene Bushwood; and his dog, Foxy. He was preceded in death by his brother, James Polburn, and nephew, James Polburn, Jr.

He was born to William and Maggie (Wheeler) Polburn and raised in Painesville, OH. He served in the Korean War. He lived in Colorado, New Mexico, and Kentucky at various times. He owned Lake County Tractor Sales in Ohio, until moving around the country. He built homes and was a mechanic for years. He taught diesel engine repairs at San Juan College in NM and also small engine repairs to the Apache Tribe. He retired to Lake Panasoffkee, FL in 2002.

He would like his ashes spread over the mountains in Colorado, where he enjoyed backpacking and taking pictures of the wild animals.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to the Lake Panasoffkee Humane Society, PO Box 67, Lake Panasoffkee, FL 33538.

After cremation is complete, a ceremony of remembrance will be held.
