“ I worked with Bill in Jacksonville and also when he moved to Roseland as I was managed network services in Jacksonville at that time.. He was my first IT instructor in 1969 as part of a 6 weeks crash course on everything about IBM mainframes. I often chuckle about his disdain for wearing ties. He intentionally bought little boy ties for wear at work and kept some in his desk drawer to put on when he got to work. I forgot my tie one day and borrowed one of his. I got a lot of second looks that day and never forgot to wear my tie again when required. I traded notes with him until the end. Bill was one of a kind and will be missed. Tom Taylor

“ To The Family Of Bill Provencher: I did not know Bill personally. However, I was one of many people who felt like I knew him through his posts as "zcaveman" on Talk Of The Villages. Many people have posted kind remarks on Talk Of The Villages about zcaveman and how his posts will be missed. The administrators of Talk Of The Villages have designated zcaveman an Eternal Member. I so enjoyed "Z's" many kind and helpful posts. He was definitely one of my favorites, and I looked forward to reading every post he submitted. My thoughts are with you.

“ Bonnie, You and I never met. I reported to Bill at Prudential in the late 1980's. As I told him after the fact, that job assignment was the most enjoyable and fun group to work with in my career. Ironically, it was my shortest assignment at Pru. Truly my loss then and now. My condolences to you and all of his survivors.
