Obituary of William Spangler

William Levering Spangler, 86, of Yalaha, Florida, was born July 13, 1925 in Roxborough, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and died Thursday, February 16, 2012 in Tavares, FL. He was a retired Chief Petty Officer, USN and veteran of WWII, Korea and Vietnam and a member of Leesburg Lodge #58 F&AM. He was a retired insurance agent for the Prudential Insurance Company; Past President of Lake-Sumter Life Underwriters Association and a member of First Baptist Church of Okahumpka. He volunteered 25 years to Lake County Agriculture center as a Master Gardner, providing countless hours of help to people. A man that loved God and family, he reached out to all along life's walk and strived to make those he met smile. "He will be greatly missed but never forgotten".

He is survived by his wife, Sandra H. Spangler of Yalaha, FL; sons, Miles E. Spangler and wife, Mary of Grand Island, FL and Philip K. Spangler of Jacksonville, FL; two grandchildren, Sandra and Cameron Spangler.

“ Sandra: Bill was such a great man. I always enjoyed talking to him, even when I had to yell because he had his hearing aid turned down. He loved you and the boys (and Buddy) so much. He will be missed in the neighborhood and by so many people. Cherish the time you had together and allow those memories to bring you peace. We are here if you need us. Bill is at peace with God now.

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of such a special person: simple and deep, life loving, open and good to the core. It was an honor to know him and a lesson in life to spend time with him. He'll always have a special place in my heart. Sandra, please, come spend some time with us as soon as you feel ready for it.
