“ I just want to express my sympathys to the loss of Mr. Watson. My husband keeps up with the Silvertones an awful lot. I dont have to say that hes in a better place because yall know that already. But oh what a Christmas celebration he will be experiencing this year. Everything will be so overwhelming to him. What a great time for a family reunion he is having. A celebration that will last for an eternity. I kniw it hurts to lose a loved one for its only for a very short time before we all join our loved ones in heaven and sit along side of Jesus at the throne. So exciting. God Bless

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Bro. Willie's Family. I remember growing up and the grace and knowledge of the bible that Br. Willie had. You could asked him a question regarding the bible and he knew the answer. He will surely be missed. Loved to hear his message in song.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of a great man that touched so manus life's and heart! I never met the man personal only on the phone calling to talk to Wendi! I have heard stories of the man he was and the legend he left behind! Just know he isn't suffering anymore and he is with our maker! I pray for this entire family for strength in the time ahead!
