Obituary of Wilma Corbin

Wilma LaVon Corbin (Cassida) most recently from Chambrel in Ocala, Florida was called home to the Lord on November 5, 2013 at the age of 85. She was born December 20, 1927 in Owen County, Indiana, the daughter of Ruth Cooksey Cassida and Lee Roy Cassida. She attended Owen County High School, Spencer, Indiana. She is preceded in death by her parents and three siblings as well as her husband of 61 years, Dwight T. Corbin.

She dedicated her life to caring for her family and serving her Lord. She was an active homemaker; sewing, cooking, canning and preserving the harvest of her husband's gardens. She taught Sunday School, played piano and served on various committees at Bluff Creek Christian Church in Bargersville, Indiana. Upon retirement and relocating to Leesburg, Florida, she continued to play piano for Sunday service as recent as August of this year.

Wilma is survived by her two daughters, Carolyn Estep (Gene) of Elizabethton, TN. and Marsha McDaniel (Larry) of Ocala, Florida. She is also survived by 5 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at 10:00a.m. on Monday, November 11, 2013 at Beyers Funeral Home, 134 N. Hwy 27/441, Lady Lake, Florida.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Northside Christian Church, 3115 Eagles Nest Road, Fruitland Park, Florida.

“ You and Caroline as well as your families have been in my thoughts and prayers. Your parents were so proud of the women you have become, both faithful to God and serving him as they did. There are few memories I have of Bluff Creek that do not include Wilma, Dwight and both of you. Both of them defined the term 'servant.' Their importance to my family is more than many would know.
