February 19, 1910 - December 10, 2010

Obituary of WINOGENE WINGLER

Winogene Wingler, 100, passed away peacefully on December 10, 2010 in Ocala, Florida. She was the eighth and only living child of the late Charley Clarence and Annie Laura Adams. Winogene was born in Damascus, Georgia on February 19, 1910 and moved to Ocala in 1919. She married Oscar Frank Holland on July 28, 1928 and together they had one son, Ernest Frank Holland. This happiness was short lived with the sudden death of her husband on June 22, 1932. She married William T. Wingler on April 29, 1940. They moved to Jacksonville, Florida where they lived for over 40 years. After the death of her second husband, she moved back to Ocala and resided at Chambrel where she enjoyed companionship and bingo games, until her health declined. She was happy to have reached her goal of 100 years of age. Mrs. Wingler is survived by her son, Ernest Frank Holland and his wife, Annette Holland, of Ocala, FL; three grandchildren Patty Kalarovich and her husband, Mark, of Wheatland, IA, Laura Alley of Goldsboro, NC, Karen Holland of Ocala, FL; four great grandchildren Daniel Alley, Kristen Alley, Brandon Kalarovich and Samantha Kalarovich; a very special niece, Betty Johnson of Jacksonville Beach, FL; as well as numerous great nieces and nephews both of Jacksonville and Ocala. She will be remembered for her love of sewing and playing the piano as well as her devotion to her family. Memorial contributions can be made to Hospice of Marion County. May God's blessing be with her.

“ I believe Mr. & Mrs. Winkler lived across the street from my childhood home on Bunkerhill Blvd. in Lake Forest. Of course, that was many years ago but I remember visiting Mrs. Winkler from time to time with my Mother, Ruby Willhelm. How wonderful that she reached her goal to live to be 100. My sincere condolences to her family and friends as I know she will be missed.
